MONDAY

1

Zero Discrimination Day

Share a campaign image from the UNAIDS website for Zero Discrimination Day.

TUESDAY

2

In honour of Australian Women's History Month, take some time today to read up on Gladys Elphick (Auntie Glad) and her incredible work on First Nations rights.

WEDNESDAY

3

World Wildlife Day

Watch the official World Wildlife Day video on YouTube and share the video on your social media platforms.

THURSDAY

4

Let someone know you love them today. Take some time to go out of your way to send someone a little note of what you appreciate about them.

FRIDAY

5

School's Clean Up Day

If you are a school student, speak to your teacher about participating in School's Clean Up Day today. If not, speak to a friend or family member who attends school and ask them to advocate for School Clean Up Day (this includes tertiary school).

SATURDAY

6

Research shampoo bars and body wash bars instead of shower products in bottles. Consider this for your next purchase. If you're already using them, share the brand you use on your social media and tag Global Goals Australia.

SUNDAY

7

Clean Up Australia Day

Participate in Clean Up Australia Day

NOTES:

This month is Australian Women's History Month. If you have a few minutes to spare throughout your day, research some incredible women from Australia's history. A good place to start is the Australian of the Year Awards website.

MONDAY

8

International Women's Day

Have an open conversation with friends and family about how you can be a better advocate for gender equality. This action is important for men, women and non-binary persons!

9

In honour of Australian Women's History Month, take some time today to read up on Elizabeth Blackburn and her contribution towards the field of medicine.

WEDNESDAY

10

When was the last time you went for a check-up? Annual check-ups with a GP are important for continued health and well-being. Make sure you book an appointment to see a GP today!

THURSDAY

11

Take time to reflect today on the community groups you are a part of. How might you be able to become more active in these groups and show more leadership? Doing this allows you to give more to the group, which in turn works towards the Global Goals!

FRIDAY

12

Find a new female-owned business to support. Purchase from them, spread the word about them in person and on social media and leave a positive review!

13

WA State Election 2021

If you are a voting citizen in Western Australia, make sure you head to the polls to cast your vote. If you are not registered to vote in WA, remind your friends and family the election is happening today and to watch for the outcome later this evening!

SUNDAY

14

Consider putting in a submission in support of the Uluru Statement from the Heart - Interim Voice Report Consultation. There is a great guide online to guide you in this process. Visit www.ulurustatement.org

NOTES:

Don't forget to use the hashtag #GGATakeAction and take @GlobalGoalsAus (Twitter) or @globalgoalsaustralia (Facebook and Instagram). We would love to share your journey with everyone!

15

Show yourself some love today! Write down 10 things you love most about YOU! We can only start showing genuine kindness to others and the world around us if we first start showing kindness to ourselves.

16

In honour of Australian Women's History Month, take some time today to read up on Enid Lyons, the first woman to be elected to the Lower House of Federal Parliament.

WEDNESDAY

17

The internet should be a safe place for everyone. Report hate speech towards women on social media.

THURSDAY

18

National Close the Gap Day

Sign the Close the Gap pledge online to celebrate National Close the Gap Day. This is a great way to commit to Goal 10: Reduced Inequalities.

FRIDAY

19

National Day of Action Against Bullying and Violence

If you are a school student, speak to your teacher about participating in NDA today. If not, speak to a friend or family member who attends school and ask them to advocate for NDA.

20

How are you storing your leftover food? Today is a good day to revisit your processes for storing food. Reusable containers and beeswax wraps are a great place to start! Can you think of any others? Share your current food storage solutions on social media.

SUNDAY

21

Harmony Day

Take some time today to learn more about another culture you have been exposed to. It may be through work, school, a community group, a neighbour or even a TV show or movie you have watched recently. Challenge yourself to understand further beyond your own culture.

NOTES:

While Harmony Day is on March 21, Harmony Week starts on March 15 and gives businesses and schools a chance to participate in Harmony Day. Make sure your school or place of work doesn't miss out!

22

World Water Day

Join UN Water in sharing what water means to you this World Water Day. Make sure you use the hashtags #WorldWaterDay and #Water2Me to join the conversation.

23

In honour of Australian Women's History Month, take some time today to read up on Dorothy Tangney, the first woman to be elected to the Upper House of Federal Parliament.

WEDNESDAY

24

Write a letter to WA's Premier to congratulate them on the election outcome and ask for their commitment to the Global Goals.

THURSDAY

25

As Easter approaches, consider what trinkets you are purchasing before the holiday - how many of them are plastic? Are they necessary? Cutting down on throw-away items during these holiday periods can do wonders for saving excess rubbish making its way to landfill!

FRIDAY

26

Earth Hour Schools Day

If you are a school student, speak to your teacher about participating in Earth Hour today. If not, speak to a friend or family member who attends school and ask them to advocate for Earth Hour (this includes Tertiary school).

SATURDAY

27

Earth Hour

Participate in Earth Hour!

SUNDAY

28

Make a commitment to buying FairTrade chocolate this Easter for your friends and family.

NOTES:

Remember: for any actions involving purchases, there is no need to make the purchase as we understand not everyone has complete financial flexibility. We encourage you to do research into these products and switch to the ones you can afford and create a budgeting plan to save for the ones you cannot yet afford.

MONDAY

29

We're coming to the end of the first quarter of 2021! Go through your expenditure this quarter and work out where you can make savings for next quarter. Maybe even do some further research into financial literacy. Economic sustainability is just as important as social and environmental sustainability!

TUESDAY

30

In honour of Australian Women's History Month, take some time today to read up on Eileen Kampakuta Brown, a First Nations environmental activist who played an important role in protecting her country and culture.

WEDNESDAY

31

Look into an online course to further your learning. There are so many free courses to expand your knowledge. These courses could be in an academic area or in a skill - whatever motivates you most!

THURSDAY

1

Stay tuned for next month's calendar.

FRIDAY

2

Good Friday

International Children's Book Day

Stay tuned for next month's calendar.

SATURDAY

3

Stay tuned for next month's calendar.

SUNDAY

4

Easter Sunday

Stay tuned for next month's calendar.

NOTES:

Stay safe this long weekend and these school holidays! If you are a student, make sure you are taking care of yourself and your family members. If not, make sure you are looking out for students over the holiday period.
